Considering a career in public-sector auditing?

Join New York State Comptroller Tom DiNapoli's audit team for the Diversity in Auditing Job Fair to learn about career opportunities in public-sector auditing. Comptroller DiNapoli is committed to promoting a diverse workplace, and is holding this event in partnership with the Association of Latino Professionals in Finance and Accounting and the National Association of Black Accountants.

The Office of the State Comptroller (OSC) is hiring over 30 auditors to join the audit team in our Division of State Government Accountability. We're looking for graduates in the fields of business, accounting, auditing, finance, economics, or information technology systems. As a State Program Examiner, you would assist in financial and performance audits of State departments, agencies, and authorities.
