

Are you passionate about public service and excited to serve in a revenue-generating position with the City of New York? The Department of Finance (DOF) is offering an opportunity to serve as a City Tax Auditor in the Tax Audit and Enforcement Division. The Tax Audit and Enforcement Division is charged with the audit of all business and excise taxes administered by New York City. The division conducts audits related to personal, sales, and use taxes. Its Enforcement Unit conducts audits of taxpayers who are potentially evading compliance with City tax laws and rules. City Tax Auditors (CTAs) conduct audits of selected audit candidates with a goal of determining the appropriate tax liability of each taxpayer and applying NYC rules and laws in accordance with the City's policies and procedures.

DOF Mission Statement

The Department of Finance administers the tax and revenue laws of the city fairly, efficiently, and transparently to instill public confidence and encourage compliance while providing exceptional customer service.

Career Advancement

DOF encourages career advancement through the civil service examination process. For more information on how to file for civil service exams, visit the Department of Citywide Administrative Services \(DCAS\) website.

Benefits - We Have Them!

DOF offers competitive salaries and a wide range of benefits, including paid annual and sick leave days, paid holidays, health benefits, retirement savings programs (such as pensions and deferred compensation), and more.

Education and Training, We Do Encourage!

DOF also promotes training & professional development through courses in Management, Supervision, Computer Skills, and Customer Service, to name a few. The City's Citywide Training Center (CTC) also offers a wide selection of comprehensive professional development programs that provide specialized development opportunities for City government employees.
