THE PALMER WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH SYMPOSIUM:

Women, Advocacy, & Activism in a Global Pandemic

Moderated by Dr. JV Fuqua

Date: Monday, March 15, 2021 • Time: 12:30–2 pm EST

Pre-registration required • Free and open to the public

Zoom Registration Link: <http://bit.ly/3arjfhw>

Guest Speakers:

Indrani Goradia, QC Alumnus; Founder, Indrani's Light

Hetal Janai, QC Alumnus; Founder, SPEAK (Support, Prepare, Empower, Aspiring Kids)

Jenny Brown, Teacher, Activist, National Women's Liberation

Diana Moreno, Director, Women's Rights Program, New Immigrant Community Empowerment

Join the Women and Gender Studies (WGS) Program, WGS students, and the QC/CUNY community for a conversation with our four guest speakers. Topics to be considered: women's labor, work activism and advocacy; the impacts of the global pandemic upon women's labor and childcare and education; global advocacy for immigrant communities, women, and children; and responses to increases in global domestic violence and organizations devoted to intervention and care. Pre-registered participants will have the opportunity to communicate through a live chat with our esteemed speakers. QC is especially honored and pleased that two of the college's very own alumni will share their knowledge and experience with our participants!
