

MoMA/CUNY Student Ambassadors Program

Through a series of behind-the-scenes workshops with MoMA staff across departments, participants will learn about modern and contemporary art, get a unique perspective on art museum professions, and create a project that will impact CUNY student visitation to MoMA.

Student Ambassadors Receive:

- Professional development opportunity
- Networking and relationship-building opportunities
- MetroCards for travel to and from MoMA for each session
- $1,000 stipend

Lunch will be provided.

Requirements

- Attendance to six seminars, June 8–12, 17–18, from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m.
- Share MoMA information with student groups

This program is recommended to those interested in learning about art, arts education, and arts administration as a potential career.

The ideal candidate should be passionate about modern and contemporary art.

Successful applicants must be legally eligible to work in the United States for the whole duration of the program.

Application Process

Please submit a résumé and cover letter by Friday, March 20, 2020, to rebecca_vicente@moma.org.

MoMA/CUNY Arts Partnership

Together we aim to make MoMA a resource and destination for the communities across all 25 CUNY campuses. By developing and fostering connections to meet the needs of CUNY faculty and students with MoMA learning resources, we can create opportunities for exchange, collaboration, and learning.

MoMA

Volkswagen

Volkswagen of America is proud to be MoMA's lead partner of education.

Major support for Adult and Academic Programs is provided by the Estate of Susan Sabel.

Generous funding is provided by endowments established by Agnes Gund and Daniel Shapiro, The Junior Associates of The Museum of Modern Art, Walter and Jeanne Thayer, and by the gifts of Alan Kanzer. Additional support is provided by the Annual Education Fund.