

Thinking about Graduate School in English?

An Info Session and Open House for Prospective Applicants

Friday, 18 October, 4p

CUNY Graduate Center, 365 Fifth Avenue,
English Lounge, Room 4406

Doctoral students and faculty will give brief presentations on the elements of a strong application, the challenges and pleasures of being a graduate student today, and strategies for navigating all of it! They will answer questions about the application process, graduate school in general, and the English Program in particular. A reception will follow.

All prospective applicants are warmly encouraged to attend, and we extend this invitation especially to the POC, LGBTQIP, and other underrepresented communities and prospective applicants out there!
