

FACULTY AND STUDENTS ARE CORDIALLY INVITED

FROM COEXISTENCE TO SHARED SOCIETY: THE EVOLVING POLITICAL IDENTITY OF ARAB CITIZENS IN ISRAEL

Tuesday, October 29

4:30 pm to 6:00 pm, light dinner served

QSide Lounge in the Dining Hall

Greetings: VP of Communications & Marketing Jay Hershenson

Moderator: Dean of Social Sciences Michael Wolfe

Sponsorship: CERRU, Center for Jewish Studies, Department of Political Science, Department of Sociology, Division of Social Science, Department of Student Affairs, Department of Urban Studies

Click HERE to RSVP

Mohammad Darawshe will discuss current affairs and analyze the results of the recent elections and their ramifications to Jewish-Arab relations within Israeli society.

Mohammad Darawshe is the Director of Planning, Equality and Shared Society at Givat Haviva Educational Center and a Shalom Hartman Institute faculty member. Mohammad Darawshe is a leading expert on Jewish-Arab relations and has presented at the European Parliament, NATO Defense College, World Economic Forum, and Club de Madrid, US Congress, Herzliya Conference and Israel's Presidential Conference. He lives in Iksal with his wife and four children.