

PEDAGOGY POP-UPS

Pedagogy Pop-Ups are a space for faculty to engage in peer-based discussion about teaching and learning at Queens College.

Career Competencies in Our Courses

Wednesday, February 25, 2026, on Zoom

12:30 p.m. - 1:30 p.m.

Faculty Presenter: Professor Susan Davis (Music)

How can faculty support students to prepare for their post-graduation futures?

What does it mean to “integrate career competencies” in our courses?

Join us for a presentation and discussion to learn more about different ways to encourage career readiness through group work, class discussions, presentations, writing assignments, and more. Bring your questions, concerns, strategies, and stories!

Link to Register: forms.office.com/r/KSiwLScJUt

Faculty Presenter Bio

Dr. Susan A. Davis is a Professor and Graduate Coordinator of Music Education at the Aaron Copland School of Music at Queens College. She teaches courses in instrumental methods, music education research, the psychology of music and music education, and mentors undergraduate and graduate student teachers.

Next Pop-Up Date

March 18, 2026 at 12:30 p.m. - 1:30 p.m. with Johnathan Thayer, PhD, MLS (GSLIS)
Local Community History Curricula and a Local Community Memory Program