

SPEND JULY IN VIETNAM TEACHING ENGLISH

Work this summer with Vietnamese teachers as they help children in Ho Chi Minh City (formerly Saigon) learn English.

Student Information Session:
Wednesday, December 4
12:15-1:30 pm
Powdermaker Hall, Room 154

“Summer Fun” is a program hosted by the South East Asian Ministers of Education Organization (SEAMEO; www.vnseameo.org). This experiential teaching and learning program helps children in Vietnam improve their English skills through a fun learning environment with native English speakers. Education and TESOL majors preferred.

The internship includes:

- Four-week internship in July 2014.
- Co-teaching 16-20 hours a week to students ages 5-15.
- Room and board, plus a daily stipend of $15-20.
- Partial subsidy for round-trip air travel from NYC to Vietnam.
- Guided tours with travel opportunities, such as tours of Ho Chi Minh City, the Cao Dai temples, the Cu Chi tunnel, Mekong Delta, Mui Ne, and Da Nang, as well as a shopping tour.

This highly competitive internship program with six openings is available to all QC undergraduate and graduate students. Applications will be accepted December 4-28. Interns will be selected in January. To apply, visit:
