

Building Relationships, Inspiring Success.

"Ramapo gave me a lot of responsibility. It was like being told 'we trust you, we appreciate your work, and we want to see you grow.' No one else had really offered me that before and I'll always be grateful to Camp Ramapo for believing in me."
—Boris, 6th year Bunk Supervisor

Dear Chairperson,

Ramapo for Children is a highly regarded non-profit organization that serves children and young adults with social, emotional and learning differences. At Ramapo we offer college students and recent graduates unique job and internship opportunities through summer and year-round programs on our Rhinebeck, New York campus.

Our philosophy is centered around the belief that all children want to learn, feel valued and experience success, and our staff members embrace the challenges and triumphs that come through working with children living with differences. Many of our staff alumni describe their work at Ramapo as one of their most formative personal and professional experiences. Ramapo's employment opportunities include summer camp counselor positions that focus on working with children ages 6-16, and RamaYear, a 15- to 17-month program designed for recent college graduates.
