

Queens Memory, the Irish Studies Program, the Hellenic-American Oral History Project, and the History Department Present:

DOING ORAL HISTORY: A Workshop to Learn Methods and Skills

Tuesday, April 4, 2017, 4:00 p.m.
Powdermaker Hall, Room 253

Please join us for a discussion and hands-on training session in the skills of doing oral history! Students and volunteers will learn about using technology (including recorders), asking questions, and time-coding and editing the material. There will also be an opportunity to volunteer for different oral history projects taking place on the QC campus.

Perfect for skill- and resumé building!
