

CERRU
CENTER FOR ETHNIC, RACIAL & RELIGIOUS UNDERSTANDING

CRUCIAL

CONVERSATIONS

Sunday, March 4th, 2018

9am - 5:30pm

Queens College, Powdermaker 155

Breakfast: 9am-9:30am

Lunch: 12:30-1:30pm

Join us for our single-day Crucial Conversations Signature Workshop. Crucial conversations are difficult and important discussions that people often shy away from or have in explosive and destructive ways. This workshop is designed for people of all levels to gain greater awareness and practice in tools that support honest and nonviolent communication on important topics with family, work cohorts, and significant others.

This workshop provides participants with the following:

- Understanding of components of difficult conversations
- Tools to ethically engage in difficult conversations
- Understanding of personal communication style
- Understanding of components of conversational violence

Prices are sliding scale and include breakfast and lunch

For more information about event and pricing, please see Eventbrite page at

<https://crucial-conversations-cerruqc.eventbrite.com>

If the cost is prohibitive to your participation, or if you would like to avoid Eventbrite fees by booking directly, please contact Yael Rosenstock at (yrosenstock@cerru.org).