

Mellon Mays Undergraduate Fellowship Open House

Are you a straight A student in the Humanities and the Social Sciences?

Do you nerd out about papers and ideas?

Are you attracted by Graduate School or the idea of doing a PhD but you don't know where to start?

If this is the case you're the perfect candidate for the Mellon Mays Undergraduate Fellowship and you should come to our Open House event!

The Mellon Mays Fellowship provides undergraduate students from historically underrepresented groups with the financial and academic support needed to apply successfully to PhD Programs in the Humanities and the Social Sciences.

Our immediate goal? To make our Fellows succeed when applying for PhD Programs.
Our end goal? To make academia a more diverse space.

Some of the highlights of the program are:

- A Mentoring System
- Summer Funding
- A living Stipend
- Expert Support to prepare your Graduate School Application

NOV 2ND-HONORS HALL ROOM 17 • 12:15PM
TO 1:30 PM
