ADDITIONAL HONORS COMMUNITIES

Freshman Honors

tinyurl.com/QC-FreshmanHonors

Freshman Honors provides a specially designed liberal arts curriculum of interrelated classes that satisfy core requirements and incorporate experiences that integrate the work students do in these classes. Students in Freshman Honors are assigned an honors advisor who is knowledgeable about the college and its programs.

Kessler Scholars

KesslerQC@qc.cuny.edu tinyurl.com/KesslerQC

Supported by Fred and Judy Wilpon Foundation—this is a new visionary program that provides academic, financial, and social support to exceptional students who are among the first in their family to attend college, helping them achieve their dreams.

Transfer Honors

transferhonors@qc.cuny.edu tinyurl.com/QC-THP

Recognizing the value transfer students contribute, this program is devoted to cultivating the scholarly potential of talented transfer students by offering financial and academic support as well as a community of likeminded scholar.

Mellon Mays

brais.outesleon@qc.cuny.edu tinyurl.com/MellonMaysQC

Established in 1988 as a response to the shortage of faculty of color in higher education, this 2-year program accepts students from under-represented populations and others who have a demonstrated commitment to eliminating racial disparities. Open to application at any year in your college experience.

OFFICE OF PRESTIGIOUS SCHOLARSHIPS AND FELLOWSHIPS

Queens College students have been highly successful in winning major national scholarships. The Watson, Marshall, Fulbright, Truman, Gilman, Mellon Mays, and Goldwater Scholarship are among the prestigious awards won by our students. Through workshops, information sessions, campus emails, writing bootcamps, and individual guidance, the office of Prestigious Scholarships and Fellowships prepares students to submit competitive applications.
